Press/Quotes:

" The range of atmospheres and emotions in the poetry of Yaniv Taubehouse's music is astounding. Rarely and only once or twice in a lifetime do you get to hear a musician and a pianist who is as sensitive as Taubehouse to the voice of the heart, the breadth of human emotion and its relationship with the whisper of nature, and its roar as well. " -Raul da Gama, Jazz da Gama

" Yaniv Taubehouse is definitely poised to be one of the new young lions of jazz to watch out for and his impressive Here from There debut, is a serious musical statement. Taubehouse provides an enjoyable session of music where jazz and classical merge to forge one of the finest trio performances found on today's jazz landscape. " - Edward Blanco, All About Jazz

" Few younger-generation players would be capable of a similar deconstruction of Time After Time, or following it with the intense uplift of Hope. New talent comes along with the seasons; fresh new talent is somewhat rarer and more precious." - Brian Morton, Jazz Journal

"Yaniv Taubehouse has a wealth of talent which includes many musical assets. □ His special music is delightful, attractive, thoughtful, pensive, diverse, playful, rhythmical and a pleasure to listen to. □ Yaniv's music includes great combinations of natural melodies, harmonies and rhythms and in his recording he is complimented by an integrated rhythm section. □ The compositions and improvisations have many interesting influences, yet he maintains his own vitality and identity!" - Joanne Brackeen

"Yaniv is an extremely gifted, creative, dedicated young man who has proven himself to be an excellent pianist skilled in the various styles of jazz from stride piano to "bebop" as well as the more contemporary forms. He is also a superb classical pianist and is one of the few performers who is able to convincingly straddle both worlds of jazz and classical music" - David Schnitter

"Yaniv Taubehouse possesses a rare gift as a musician and pianist; the combination of virtuosity, curiosity along with the courage to use his art as a vehicle to bring his joy and pain to the surface. Taubehouse has divided his efforts between the studies of classical and jazz repertoire and technique, the results of which are both a finely tuned interpretive talent along with inspired improvisational skills. His compositions have a compelling familiarity that reflects his empathy and charisma" - Robert Ginsburg, NPR Host - Shades of Jazz, KUAF 91.3FM.
